

A special recognition opportunity for your Scouts

Each year, the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts of the district are asked to participate in various flag ceremonies for their chartered organization, community clubs and service organizations, and other community events. With this in mind, the district has implemented a new program to recognize their efforts.

The Audubon District Color Guard patch is available for all Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts that have participated in a flag ceremony since January 1, 2011 can get this patch.* The patch design, as shown on the left, will be offered for 2011 through December 2012 only.

An optional year bar is available for purchase to indicate multiple years earned. Please check with the council service center for availability.

* The flag ceremony must not be conducted at a regular den, patrol, or troop meeting, but can include pack meetings, courts of honor, community ball games,

Please cut along dash line and forward the bottom portion and forward it to the council service center with appropriate fees.
